

Register Now

CALL FOR PARTICIPANTS

SEEDS OF CHANGE - ENGAGE, EDUCATE, EMPOWER: UNDERSTANDING AND ADDRESSING RACISM

We are inviting ethnocultural organizations to join this project that brings together community organizations to engage in anti-racism education and build a supportive network to enact anti-racism initiative in Calgary. Training sessions will be facilitated by ActionDignity's Anti-Racism Training and Education Coordinator- Dr. Towani Duchscher.

Dedicated Representation

Two representatives from your organization will actively participate in the cohort, building leadership and advocacy skills

Tailored Learning

Engage in 5 customized anti-racism workshops and 1 Systems Change Project Planning Workshop starting February 2026

Ongoing Support

Participate in Communities of Practice (Sept 2026-June 2027) designed to foster peer learning, exchange of best practices, and collective problem solving

Community Impact

Support in developing and implementing your own anti-racism initiative that directly benefits your community

maryam.agunbiade@actiondignity.org

Supported by

Calgary

Register Now

CALL FOR YOUTH PARTICIPANTS

SEEDS OF CHANGE - ENGAGE, EDUCATE, EMPOWER: UNDERSTANDING AND ADDRESSING RACISM

Are you passionate about creating positive change and addressing racism in your community? We're looking for youth leaders and anti-racism changemakers (ages 15–25) to engage in anti-racism and systems change education and build an anti-racism action network of youth. Project Orientation Sessions will be held on January 15 and 17.

Build skills and knowledge through 5 tailored anti-racism workshops and 1 systems change & project management workshop

Participate in Communities of Practice to share learning and support your cohort as an anti-racism youth network

Work alongside others to design and implement meaningful anti-racism initiatives in Calgary

maryam.agunbiade@actiondignity.org

Supported by

Calgary

